

READ UNITED

October 2018

In its second year, Real Men Read volunteers visit a classroom once a week for four weeks for 30 minutes to share their love of reading with children. The volunteers receive topical books to read aloud, as well as discussion cards to support student interaction. Volunteers are encouraged and coached about how to share information about their occupations and lives with students.

April 2019

In its second year, women volunteers will be matched with 1st grade, kindergarten and Pre-K classrooms for four weeks. The volunteers receive topical books to read aloud, as well as discussion cards to support student interaction. Volunteers are encouraged and coached about how to share information about their lives and occupations with the students.
